

Adventure Path Brunstal

National Park Hiking Trail

A barrier-free Adventure Path for young and old people. Feel nature (with all senses) and experience it actively. On the Adventure Path Brunstal, you can actively discover interesting facts regarding woods and meadows at a total of 9 stations.

The 3.5 km long Path has been built completely without any barriers. People having difficulties in walking, wheelchair users as well as visually impaired and blind persons can experience the Path unaccompanied. Allow at least 2 hours for this round walk. You will learn exciting things about the variety in the Hainich National Park, ranging from wildcats to woodpeckers up to the strengths of an ant.

Due to construction, the way is currently not walkable.
